

I believe we have done enough damage deregulating media outlets. A working democracy needs to hear more voices not fewer. There is no shortage of Americans with opinions and the willingness to express them. Please don't give more power to those who already have enough.

Thank you.